

1001.1
Legal Status of the School District

Nebraska law authorizes the creation of public schools and this school district is a school corporation created and organized under Nebraska law. This school district shall be known as Fort Calhoun Community School District, Washington County Nebraska District 89-0003. The school district as a body, possesses all the usual powers of a corporation for public purposes.

The school corporation is located in Washington County Nebraska and its affairs are conducted by elected school officials, the Fort Calhoun Community School District Board of Education. This school corporation has local control over school matters in the territory of the school district, as outlined by the applicable state statutes.

Adopted on: July 8, 2013
Reviewed on: July 8, 2013
Reviewed on: December 11, 2017
Reviewed on: February 13, 2023